CELL PHONE POLICY: Students are not permitted to use their cell phones, text, take photographs or make recordings of any kind during the Master Class, unless consent is expressly provided by The Broadway Mentors Program and the Mentor. A Student violating this policy will be asked to leave the Master Class and a refund will not be provided. No exceptions.

MEDIA CONSENT: Parent and/or Student hereby consent and authorize The Broadway Mentors Program to capture and use video-audio recordings and photographic images of Student and Student's performances in electronic or online social media for educational, marketing and/or promotional purposes at any time, and by any means of distribution/media, as it relates to The Broadway Mentors Program, without any compensation to Parent and/or Student. Parent and/or Student waive any right to inspect, edit or approve any of the photographs or video-audio recordings containing Student's image or likeness. Parent and/or Student agree to waive and release any and all claims Parent and/or Student may have against The Broadway Mentors Program relating to the use of these images and recordings. The Broadway Mentors Program will not personally identify a minor Student by full name in connection with a video recording or photographic image of the minor Student, unless separate written consent from Parent is provided.

DISCLAIMER: The Master Classes offered by The Broadway Mentors Program are NOT job interviews, auditions or employment opportunities. The presence of an industry professional is in no way a promise of employment. The Broadway Mentors Program does not attempt to procure or promise employment. Master Classes are strictly an educational experience.

I FULLY UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO THESE TERMS.
